

High quality children's wear with focus on cheerfulness

The children's wear brand drappa dot wants to spread cheerfulness and with the beautiful new beach inspired spring collection they're on their way.

Children's wear from Danish drappa dot is characteristic of feminine bohemian and vintage inspired styles where every item in the line can be matched. The line represents what children like the most: joy and play without too many rules. High demands on material and design as well as high quality makes drappa dot more than just a children's wear brand – drappa dot is also every parent's favorite.

In the spring line inspiration is found in the brightly colored, energetic and beautiful life which is found around the sun, beach and water. The mission is to spread cheerfulness not only for children and their parents. The cheerfulness is common for drappa dot from the design sketches to the clothes is worn by children.

The spring line does not only offer a warm and summer inspired color palette but also offers playful and usable designs. The fit is an essential factor and the details which make the line unique are treated with highest respect.

The line offers children's wear for kids from 0 to 12 years

Whilst the girl's line offers amongst others printed tops and skirts in feminine blue and purple shades decorated with silver piping and pearls, the boys can look forward to pants with navy inspired stripes, nice knit and silver printed shirts. The spring line is made for everyday romping with its soft cotton/elastan and jersey styles.
